

PARCEL POST

Postage paid by us on any article in the drug store provided cash is sent in advance or will be sent on receipt of goods. This applies to the 50-mile zone.

Pickens Drug Co. The Rexall Store.

Ask for sample of Hallum's Liver Cleansers if you have never tried them. Regular size box, 25 cents

Local and Personal

F. W. McLeskey spent Tuesday in Atlanta on business.

Miss Hoyle Skinner, of Atlanta, is visiting friends in Pickens.

Miss Nellie Freeman is visiting friends in Greenville this week.

W. A. Peehuff of the Gap Hill section was in town Thursday on business.

Town Creek school will begin its summer session July 14, with Prof. J. W. Ballentine principal.

Misses Lura Pickens and May Pepper of Anderson county are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Smith.

J. S. H. Price, one of Pickens county's substantial farmers was at the county seat on business Tuesday.

The Keowee school will begin its summer session July 21st, with Miss Ada Craig, of Pickens, as teacher.

We learn with much pleasure that the Antioch school will begin a nine months session next Monday, July 14.

Misses Leta and Iva Sylvester, of Clemson College, were the weekend guests of Misses Stella and Nannie Porter.

Auditor N. A. Christopher and wife left Tuesday on a ten days trip to Black Mountain, Asheville and other summer resorts.

The Pickens Drug Co. is now observing regular Sunday hours which are 9 to 10 in the morning and 4:30 to 5:30 in the afternoon.

Mrs. George S. Legare and children of Charleston arrived in Pickens last week to spend the heated term at their summer home here.

Douglas Yongue, now a pharmacist for Evans' Pharmacy in Anderson, is spending a week's vacation with homefolks in Pickens.

Bob Anthony, well known and popular member of the Pickens Hardware & Grocery Co., spent several days at Tallulah Falls, Ga., this week.

Avery Loooper, of this county, salesman for C. D. Stradley & Co. of Greenville, is spending his vacation with friends and relatives in his home county.

The will be a box supper given at the home of Mrs. W. B. Freeman next Monday night by Sunday school class No. 3 of the Methodist church. The boxes will be sold to the highest bidder and the proceeds used to help pay for the furnace recently purchased by the church.

There will be a protracted meeting at Bethlehem Methodist church beginning Monday night, July 14th. Everybody is cordially invited to attend these services.

Wayne F. Mauldin, the popular and efficient manager of the Pickens Oil mill, is attending the meeting of the State cotton seed crushers association in Asheville, N. C.

We learn with regret of the serious illness of Mr. J. M. Hallum, of near Liberty, and hope he may soon regain his health. His sons, Dr. J. N. and Prof. R. T., were called to his bedside Sunday.

T. M. Garret of this county, who has been in Panama the two past years, is visiting friends and relatives over the county. He is looking well and will return to Panama about July 28.

At the picnic Friday, Gignilatt Christopher increased his lead gained at the recent picnic at the power plant. Unless he gets sick there is little likelihood of his being overtaken this season.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Freeman and W. E. Jr., a fine looking 3-months-old boy, visited relatives in Pickens last week. Ernest is now located in Savannah, Ga., holding a responsible position with a large hardware firm.

Miss Emily Bright entertained a large number of her friends at a lawn party last Thursday evening and all who attended pronounced Miss Bright a most excellent hostess. Progressive conversation was the main feature of the program. Ice cream was served and enjoyed by all. The young people hope Miss Bright will entertain again soon.

Several Pickens people attended the fourth of July celebration at Williamston Friday, among them being Miss Nellie Freeman, Messrs. J. N. Hallum, John Craig, Ernest and Weldon Christopher, Ernest Alexander, F. W. McLeskey and John B. Craig. Miss Grace Prince accompanied them from Greenville.

Lost—One large black and white spotted sow with the following marks. Smooth crop and under-bit on the left and underslope off the right. Been lost since April 7th. $5.00 reward if returned to Joshua Crow, Brevard, N. C., Route 1.

For Sale

20 to 25 shares of Pickens Oil mill stock at 65c.
155 acres of unimproved land adjoining property of Norris Cotton Mill. Price $2500.
T. C. Robinson,
Commerce, Ga.

Mr. Albert Babb Dead.

Mr. Albert Babb died at his home near here early last Monday morning. He had been quite sick for about two months during which time he had the best medical attention, but the malady failed to yield to treatment. Mr. Babb moved to this county about twenty years ago from Greenville county. He was a Confederate soldier in the war between the sections and served his country well. He was 78 years old and is survived by his widow and ten children, all grown.

The ladies of the Baptist church are arranging to give the young people of Pickens a grand time Thursday night, July 10, on the court house lawn. Refreshments will be served and the band will furnish music. Everybody invited to attend.

Mr. Bruce Hagood and family have returned from a visit to Mrs. Hagood's parents in Elberton, Ga.

W. O. W. Picnic

The committee appointed by Keowee camp, No. 496, W. O. W., met and arranged to have a picnic on August 7th, on the court house lawn. All camps of the county are cordially invited to come and bring their wives, daughters and sweethearts, and spend the day pleasantly, making it a day long to be remembered in Pickens. Everybody is invited to come and bring their families and hear the principles of woodcraft explained by the speakers of the day. The committee has invited prominent speakers to be present on that day. Everybody come and bring well filled baskets.

Hagood school, district No. 38, will begin its summer session July 21. Miss Essie Kelly, who taught the last term will teach again.

Carlisle Newton, who lives near Beverly, lost a valuable horse by death last week. This is the second horse Mr. Newton has lost this year, both being good ones.

A Number of Good Farms For Sale

Tract No. 1. 10 miles north of Pickens, 141 1-2 acres. Price, $1,000. Terms, 1, 2 and 3 years.

Tract No. 2. 10 miles north of Pickens, near Pumpkintown. Price, $1,000.

Tract No. 3. Contains 64 acres, one mile from court house, on Liberty road; high state of cultivation; three good houses. Price $65 per acre.

Tract No. 4. 34 acres, one mile from court house, on Easley road. Easy terms. Bargain at $100 per acre.

Tract No. 5. Two miles east of court house; 42 acres; good new house, barns, etc. Bargain at $2,500.

Tract No. 6. Contains 70 acres, 5 miles west of court house, at $30 per acre. Terms to suit purchaser.

Tract No. 7. 35 acres, one mile south of Six Mile college; high state of cultivation. A bargain at $50 per acre.

Tract No. 8. Contains 60 acres, two miles west of Six Mile college, at $45 per acre.

Tract No. 9. 60 acres, two miles north of court house; one-half in high state of cultivation, balance in timber and pasture. $45 per acre, 1-3 cash, terms on balance.

Tract No. 10. 30 acres, at $35 per acre. Situated on Pumpkintown road, 5 miles from court house.

These are only a few of the desirable farms we have for sale. For further particulars write or call on us.

Linwood Land & Investment Company

Pickens, S. C.

Office at Keowee Bank

NEWS OF SOUTH CAROLINA

Latest News of General Interest That Has Been Collected From Many Towns and Counties.

Kingstree.—On July 1 rural routes were established at the Kingstree office whereby the postoffices of Benson and Zeb have been discontinued.

Columbia.—There are so many calls from all parts of the state for antityphoid fever bacterin that the state board of health finds the demand cannot be met with the present limited laboratory equipment.

Greenwood.—Contractor York of Raleigh, N. C., is here, ready to begin work on the $25,000 freight depot which the Seaboard Air Line is to build on Maxwell avenue. The building will be of brick and will be a large modern structure.

Landrum.—R. G. Durham, the newly appointed postmaster for Landrum, assumed the duties of the office July 1. Mr. Durham succeeds the retiring postmaster, O. C. Page, who held the place for more than 12 years, and who is popular in the community.

Kingstree.—The office of superintendent of education was turned over by Mr. J. Graham McCullough to his successor, Mr. Raymond N. Spolinger, who was elected over Mr. McCullough by one vote at the primary election in August of last year.

Yorkville.—D. M. Benfield lost a $350 mule from the effects of blood poisoning. The animal hurt itself just above the eye on a nail. When it was noticed that its eye was almost closed by the swelling, anti-blood poison serum was inserted, but the mule died.

Columbia.—Lieut. J. G. Boswell, U. S. A., who was attached to the National Guard establishment in South Carolina, in the capacity of instructor-inspector, until detached recently because of the controversy between the governor and the chief of the division of militia affairs of the war department, was ordered to Virginia Beach, Va., to inspect the Virginia brigade, National Guard.

Columbia.—Looking toward the provision of common Sunday school lessons and literature for all Lutherans in America, a committee composed of the Rev. William Hoppe, D. D., of Savannah, the Rev. H. A. McCullough and the Rev. Walter H. Grever, D. D., of Columbia met in the Lutheran Board of Publication building several days ago.

Walterboro.—Hugo S. Strickland who was elected last fall as superintendent of education for Colleton county, took charge of the office on the 1st of July, he succeeds Dr. H. W. Blask, who has made an efficient officer for eight years. Mr. Strickland is a young man of much energy and ability and will give Colleton a strong, business-like administration.

Greenville.—The board of trustees of Chicora College adjourned recently and after a meeting of the executive committee it was announced that no decision had yet been reached as to a new site for the college. The committee has appointed a sub-committee who will open negotiations with owners of five of the proposed sites, with a view to calling a meeting of the committee later and making a decision as to the selection of a new site.

Greenwood.—At a meeting of the trustees of the Greenwood public schools J. C. Martin of the Gray-Owings school of Laurens county was elected principal of the James Leslie grammar school. He has accepted Miss Olive Dobson of Gaffney, Miss Mamie Elise Bolton of Greenwood and Miss Mattie Plowden of Greenwood were elected teachers in the public schools. The trustees fixed September 15 as the date for the opening of the next session.

Walterboro.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Colleton County Fair association, the date for the next county fair was set for November 4-7, and plans were begun looking to a most successful fair. R. M. Jeffries was selected as secretary and treasurer to succeed W. W. Smoak, who has moved to Madisonville, Ky. Many matters of importance to the fair were discussed, and the prospects now are for a most successful occasion.

Honor Warrant in Favor of Dominick, Laurens.—Associate Justice Watts at chambers here signed an order requiring the comptroller general to honor a warrant in favor of Fred. H. Dominick for $1,250, a fee for services in the state bond case. The petition for mandamus was presented by Dominick, who came to Laurens for the purpose, A. W. Jones, comptroller general, introduced a resolution asking that the sinking fund commission rescind its action in approving the claim of Mr. Dominick. The resolution was voted down. Mr. Dominick, who is now assistant attorney general, was employed by the governor as an attorney in litigation over the bond refunding act.

Subscribe for The Sentinel.
Get the county news

A Great Reduction on Men's & Ladies' OXFORDS

WE have arranged to give you some great values in Oxfords for Men and Ladies.

Table No. 1.

The famous Queen Quality in all the new leathers tan, gun metal, and patent that sold for $2.50, $3.00, $3.50 and $4.00, now the $2.50 line at $1.98, $3.00 line at $2.18, $3.50 line at $2.68, $4.00 line at $2.98.

Table No. 2.

Crossett for men that sold for $4.00 and $5.00. We are closing out the odds and ends of this stock, the $4.00 kind at $2.98, and will also let the $5.00 kind go at the same price.

Table No. 3.

Abbott line in medium price which is known as the best shoes for the money at $3.50 that can be had. We are closing them in this sale at $2.68.

HEATH-BRUCE-MORROW COMPANY Pickens, S. C.

THE GREAT Remodeling Sale Is Still in Full Blast At The Battery, Easley, S. C.

And we have a lot of Bargains left in every department. If you did not get here last week be sure and come this week for a few dollars spent here during this Sale will carry away many dollars worth of goods. Below we quote a few prices on some specials.

Ladies' white Slippers and Oxfords $2.98, 98c, $1.00, $1.24.
Ladies' and Men's $2.50 and $3.00 Oxfords. Sale price $1.98.
Men's $1.25 and $1.50 pants. Sale price 89c.
2000 yards Apron Gingham, 8 and 10c value on sale at 5c yd.
Boy's knickerbocker everyday pants. Sale price 19c.
Ladies' $1.00 Shirt Waists, low and high necks on sale all this week for 49c.
Men's 50c heavy work Shirts. Sale price 39c.

Ladies' gauze vest, value 10c. Sale price 5c.
Good heavy hickory Shirts, value 10 and 12c yd. Sale price 8 1/2c yard.
2 big boxes Searchlight matches for 5c.
2 full pound boxes best Soda made for 5c.
8 cakes good 5c laundry soap for 25c.
Men's elastic seam Drawers at half price—39c.
Men's 50c fine Dress Shirts. Sale price 39c.
Men's gray Sox for 4c pair.

Remember, we have thousands of Special Bargains that we can not tell you about in this small space. Come and see for yourself and save money.

THE BATTERY

"The Store That's Always Busy."

Edwin L. Bolt & Co., Props.

EASLEY, S. C.

Is It Hot Enough For You?

We will give you a cool reception at our sanitary soda fountain

Ice Cream Delivered Anywhere in Quantities

Phone 24.

Keowee Pharmacy Pickens, S. C.

Everybody invited to the lawn party Thursday Evening, 10th is advancing in price, but I will sell you some at the old price. Fresh supply of all kinds of loose candies.

SUGAR

GROCERIES

FRESH, STAPLE AND FANCY.

GREG T. MAULDIN

Come to my store and get my prices before buying. I will treat you right.

Pickens Garage

F. W. McLESKEY, Manager

First Class Repair Work at Reasonable Prices

Auto Tires, Gasoline, Oils, Greases, Spark Plugs, Body Polish, Auto Soap, Batteries and all kinds of accessories. If we haven't got what you want we will get it or it isn't made.

PHONES: Office, 12; Residence, 65

Try an Advertisement in The Sentinel

If You Want Good Results